1. Aims

This policy aims to:

- Clearly explain how we will determine teachers' pay and clearly explain how decisions will be made based on the teacher's performance
- Set out a clear framework for pay and progression throughout the school

- Support the recruitment and retention of high quality teachers
- Enable us to recognise and reward teachers for their contribution to the school
- Ensure that pay decisions are made in a fair and transparent way

This policy has been consulted on by staff and relevant trade unions.

2. Legislation and guidance

This policy complies with the School Teachers Pay and Conditions Document (STPCD). It is based on the model pay policy created by the Department for Education (DfE).

We will also refer to our local authority's pay policy.

When implementing our pay policy, we will abide by:

- The Employment Relations Act 1999, which establishes a number of statutory work rights

- The Part-time Workers (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2000 and the Fixed-Term Employees (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2002, which require us to ensure part-time and fixed-term workers are treated fairly
- The Equality Act 2010 which requires schools to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination and advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it
- The principles of public life which require those conducting the procedures to be objective, open and accountable

Our procedures for addressing grievances in relation to pay are based on the Acas grievance code of practice and are set out in our staff grievance procedures.

3. Definitions

- Teacher includes all staff qualified and appointed to teach at the school. This includes the leadership team and the headteacher, unless otherwise stated
- Teaching and learning responsibility is a payment awarded to a classroom teacher for undertaking a sustained additional responsibility, for the purpose of ensuring the continued delivery of high-quality teaching and learning and for which the teacher is made accountable
- Main and upper pay ranges are the ranges on which a classroom teacher's salary will be set
- Leadership group comprises the headteacher, associate headteacher and assistant headteachers

4. Roles and responsibilities

Line managers will make recommendations on a teacher's pay following the teacher's appraisal.

Final pay decisions are made by the governing board.

Responsibility for making pay decisions is delegated to the pay committee of the governing board and ratified by the full governing board.

5. How we will decide pay on appointment

The governing board will determine the pay range for a vacancy prior to advertising it. On appointment, it will determine the starting salary within that range to be offered to the successful candidate.

To determine the salary, the governing board will take into account a range of factors, including:

- The nature of the post
- The level of qualifications, skills and experience required
- Market conditions
- The wider school context

There is no assumption that a teacher will be paid at the same rate as they were being paid in a previous school.

6. How we will decide on pay progression

6.1 Annual reviews

The governing board will ensure that each teacher's salary is reviewed annually between 1 September and 31 October, in alignment with our annual appraisal period.

Pay progression will be decided based on their performance during the previous appraisal period. The salary will be decided with reference to the appraisal reports and the pay recommendation they contain.

When making decisions, the governing body will take into account:

- The performance of the teacher over the appraisal period, using evidence of their performance against their objectives and the Teachers' Standards collected throughout the appraisal period. Our appraisal arrangements, including what evidence will support judgements, are set out in full in our appraisal policy
- The pay recommendation made in the teacher's appraisal report
- Advice from the senior leadership team
- Any changes to the responsibilities and expectations of the teacher's role
- The wider school context, including the budget

When deciding pay progression based on performance, we will consider:

- Whether the measures of performance will be absolute or relative or a combination of both
- The levels of performance that will be required for progression to be awarded
- How progression will be differentiated – so that the very highest performers can progress faster.

The decision can be 'no pay progression' without triggering the capability policy.

6.2 Mid-year reviews

Reviews may take place at other times of the year if an individual's role or job description changes. Changes include going part-time and taking on or removing additional roles and responsibilities.

A written statement will be given after any review and will give information about why it was made.

7. Moving to the Upper Pay Range

7.1 Making applications

All qualified teachers can apply to be paid on the upper pay range, and any application will be assessed in line with this policy.

Applications can be made at least once a year. Applications can be submitted in the Autumn Term for review.

Applications will be submitted in writing to Mr. Ian Hunt (Headteacher) and will be reviewed by line managers and a senior leader. All applications will be treated fairly and impartially.

When submitting an application, please include:

- Results of appraisals under the 2012 regulations, including recommendations on pay
- Where this information is not applicable or available, a statement and summary of evidence to demonstrate that you have met the assessment criteria

7.2 Assessment

In order to be eligible to be paid on the upper pay range, the governing board must be satisfied that:

- The teacher is highly competent in all elements of the Teachers' Standards; and
- The teacher's achievements and contributions are substantial and sustained For the purpose of this policy:

- 'Highly competent' means:
Performance which is good enough to provide coaching, mentoring and advice to other teachers, and demonstrate to them effective teaching practice and how to make a wider contribution to the work of the school, in order to help them meet the relevant standards and develop their teaching practice
- 'Substantial' means:
The teacher's contributions are of real importance, validity or value to the school; play a critical role in the life of the school; provide a role model for teaching and learning; make a distinctive contribution to the raising of pupil standards; take advantage of appropriate opportunities for professional development and use the outcomes effectively to improve pupils' learning

- 'Sustained' means:
The teacher's contributions have been maintained over a long period

7.3 The decision

The assessment will be made and the applicant notified within a 1 month period.

The decision will be made by the governing body who will also determine where the teacher will be placed on the upper pay range. Considerations will include the nature of the post, the responsibilities it entails, and the qualifications and skills of the teacher.

If successful, applicants will move to the upper pay range from the start of the next term. Pay will be backdated to the date the decision was made.

If unsuccessful, feedback will be provided by line managers in a one-to-one meeting, within 5 working days of the decision notification. The line manager will set out why the application was unsuccessful, and provide advice on how the teacher can improve when making another application in the future.

Decisions will also be communicated in writing. Any appeals against decisions are covered by our staff grievance procedures.

- Special educational needs (SEN) allowances

12. Appealing a decision on pay progression

Where any teacher feels that a decision made over their pay is unfair, they have the right to appeal. Teachers should attempt to resolve the matter informally at first, by speaking to Mr. Ian Hunt (Headteacher)

If the teacher wishes to lodge a formal grievance, they should set out their reasons for appealing in a letter to Miss Robyn Middleton (Chair of Governors) within 5 working days of the pay statement being issued. Reasons may include:

- The pay policy was incorrectly applied
- The decision contravenes the STPCD/other relevant terms and conditions the teacher is employed under
- The decision contravenes equality legislation
- Relevant evidence was not taken into account
- The decision was biased

The rest of the grievance procedure is set out in our staff grievance procedures, which is based on the Acas Code of Practice for addressing grievances.

If the appeal is upheld, the Governing Body will re-issue the pay statement with the correct information.
