

Writing on the Wall – English Project Week 2

Hi Year 4

Hopefully you had a look at the videos for this project last week and completed the writing activity.

You could watch the introduction video from the Super Heroes, Words are our Power again on the link below. You click on the link and use the password: WOW1

<https://www.writingonthewall.org.uk/videos.html>

Once you have watched the video from the Super Heroes – you can start watching the second video of Dommy B, the poet! He talks about conflict in poetry and the use of adjectives. He reads one of his poems called 'Fire' and then you can complete a poetry writing activity with him. Pause the video as you go along. This is a lovely fun writing activity – you are going to be a Super Hero too!

Double click on the icon below then click open to watch the second video of Dommy B.

Dommy B Film 2 - Conflict Poems and

Dommy B's poem 'Fire' is below (on the next page) for you to read and get inspiration from! Have fun Year 4 and share your poems with the class on Twitter @springwoodyear4

Fire

Emergency! Will Scarlet win this fight?

She turns to see a witch's spell alight!

This burning beast's big, magic hands ignite and fervently attack with all their might!

There's Fire! Fire in the air!

This must be Scarlet's worst nightmare.

There's Fire! Fire everywhere

but Scarlet's speed's beyond compare.

There's urgency as Scarlet's feet take flight and perfectly she jumps an awesome height.

Determinedly, she has the witch in sight.

With certainty, her kick's like dynamite!

A kick like fire in the air!

A kick like fire. Witch, beware!

A kick like fire in the chest!

Will Scarlet prove that she's the best?

Kick like fire!

Kick like fire!

Kick like fire!