

Writing on the Wall – English Project

Hi Year 4

We should be starting the Writing on the Wall project this week but as we are isolating I thought you could have fun trying it at home.

The introduction video from the Super Heroes, Words are our Power is on the link below. You click on the link and use the password: WOW1

<https://www.writingonthewall.org.uk/videos.html>

Once you have watched the video from the Super Heroes – you can start watching the video of Dommy B, the poet! He talks about poetry, reads one of his poems and then you can complete a poetry writing activity with him. Pause the video as you go along. This is a lovely fun writing activity – you are going to be a Super Hero too!

Double click on the icon below then click open to watch the video of Dommy B.

Dommy B Film 1 -
Story Poems.mp4

Dommy B's poem 'Dave, the Dragon' is below (on the next page) for you to read and get inspiration from! Have fun Year 4 and share your poems with the class on Twitter @springwoodyear4

Dave, the Dragon

I have a pet dragon, called Dave.

His mouth is as dark as a cave.

His wings are bright red.

He's as big as a shed.

Sometimes, Dave can misbehave.

Oh, Dave is not nasty or cruel,

but once, he flew over my school.

He needed a drink

and before I could blink

he drunk up the school swimming pool!

The teacher said, 'Ooh, this looks grim.

Now where can we go for a swim?'

I had an idea,

put my mouth to Dave's ear

and this is what I said to him,

'We can save the day – you and me!

Fly the class, on your back, to the sea!'

Dave flew us outside,

a trip to the seaside,

and everyone shouted, 'Yippee!'